

The saints of Brownsville need pastoral care, discipleship, and leadership and the lost of Brownsville need the Gospel. You are not afraid of uncertainty or fazed by small beginnings. You understand the Gospel changes lives and are compelled to share Jesus, you are steadfast in your faith and see your relationships and actions through the lens of eternity. You are neither deterred by the dark places in neighborhoods or the dark places in the hearts of sinners. You understand that we are to go into the world proclaiming the Gospel, not wait for the world to come to us. You have experienced the power of the Holy Spirit.

You love Scripture and believe it is inerrant and infallible. You understand, respect, and teach through the lens of the Anglican formularies. Discipleship is important to you as part of your own growth and the growth of the church. You believe that revival is a sovereign act of God and we need to pray and prepare.

We are young, old, poor, comfortable, white, black, left, right, athletes, artists, and friends with Jesus. Brownsville is not the end of the earth, but you can see it from here. We need you.
